Millennium Tour!!

Join Calgary touring cyclist Peter LaGrandeur on this common adventure bicycle tour of the Loire Valley in France in late spring of 2000. The focus of this van-supported 550km riding trip will visiting be the chateaux, wineries, cuisine, art, churches, museums, and culture of this historic area south of Paris, long the historic home of French royalty.

The cycling starts in Orleans, south of Paris and works its way west to the city of Angers. The connections between Paris to Orleans and then Angers back to Paris will be via the French passenger train. Participants on this trip bring their own bikes which will be transported separately and directly between the airport to Orleans and then at the end of the trip from Angers back to the airport by separate van transport.

Accommodation will be at 2 and 3 star hotels based on double/twin bedrooms.

Participant Registration Agreement

1. Risk Acknowledgement & Acceptance of Self Responsibility:

This trip is offered on the understanding it is a Common Adventure where each participant conducts him/herself independently, makes his/her own judgements about safety and well being, takes full responsibility for his/her own actions, and contributes whatever he/she can towards the success of the trip. The Tour Co-Ordinator is not a leader or professional guide of any type and acts only to provide basic logistical arrangements for initiating and running the trip. The route, itinerary and all other aspects of this trip are only suggested and, as responsible tourists, each participant is expected to research everything prior to the trip to whatever extent he/she feels is necessary to determine that all is safe and suitable. Each participant is expected to possess any skills, equipment, fitness, common sense, etiquette, knowledge of applicable legislations, etc., to enjoyably and safely be involved in this activity. Each participant is the sole and final judge about his/her capability to safely proceed with this tour. All participants recognize financial loss, physical injuries and death to be real possibilities facing anyone in the sport of bicycling and related activities and agree to assume all risks and consequences. All participants agree to absolve Peter LaGrandeur, Skies Unlimited Travel, and their agents of any liability arising from this tour. Any person who does not feel confident or self reliant about their abilities or who does not agree with this philosophy should not participate on this tour.

2. I recognize that there are many potential perils that may be encountered while participating in the Loire Valley Bicycle Tour including motorists, lack of electronic contact, non-ideal road conditions, etc.. I will be reasonable physically fit and will educate myself and gain sufficient experience in whatever skills are required to capably handle any situation I may be presented with. These skills may include bicycle repair, first aid, hot/cold/wet weather survival, route finding, etc..

3. I will, at all times, ride courteously and abide by all applicable legislations while operating a bicycle on the Loire Valley Bicycle Tour.
